Clarification of News Report

This is in response to your request for clarification of the news article entitled "ACEN to build 4 wind farms in Vietnam" posted in philSTAR.com on July 21, 2021. The article reported in part that:

"MANILA, Philippines — AC Energy Corp. (ACEN) is putting up four wind farms with a combined capacity of 440 megawatts (MW) in Vietnam this year, which will make the country its largest overseas market.

In a statement, ACEN said it leveraged on Vietnam's strong wind resource potential, making a strategic pivot to jointly develop wind projects with its partners. The company is investing a total of $445 million in Vietnam.

With its partners, the company is already operating 525 MW of renewables capacity from its existing solar and wind farms in the country.

....

With four wind farms set to be operational within the year, and with the upcoming completion of the infusion of its international assets that will bring 1,408 MW of renewables capacity, ACEN's renewable energy portfolio is set to reach 2,500 MW within the year, already in the halfway mark of its target to reach 5,000 MW by 2025.

...."

We confirm the accuracy of the above quoted article.

We will advise the Exchange promptly of any developments or relevant information as applicable.
